Annual Scientific Meeting 2017

“How technology help to improve the survival of OHCA”

Resuscitation Council of Hong Kong (RCHK) was established in 2012 with the concerted effort of the 8 Founding members and they have the common objectives of promoting the best practice, teaching, research, standardization and public awareness in resuscitation in Hong Kong. RCHK has been accepted by the Resuscitation Council of Asia (RCA) as a full member since February 2016.

2. The RCHK Annual Scientific Meeting 2017 provides an international platform for experts and delegates from overseas and Hong Kong to exchange the recent advances and guidelines in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and its education.

3. Details of the Scientific Meeting are as follows:
