ASI(HK) Circular 2/2017-18

Emergency Medicine for Disaster and Humanitarian Crises Responders

This circular is to encourage ASI(HK) member to participate in the course organized by Li Ka Shing Faculty of Medicine of The University of Hong Kong (HKU) and supported by the Hong Kong Jockey Club Disaster Preparedness and Response Institute (HKJCDPR).

2. This course is designed for health care professionals and volunteer workers who are interested in disaster medicine and humanitarian work. It attempts to merge emergency medicine and public health in the context of disaster, with an emphasis on knowledge exchange between different practitioners, hands-on training on life- and mind-saving skills, experience sharing, and reflection on the ethical and legal issues related to humanitarian work.

3. The course outline and schedule is attached for reference. For further information and the enrolment information, please visit the following website.
